

Any Seat Will Do

You took up your seat,
to allow others to see,
there is no future for inequality.

Why should one race stand, in front of any other,
leading without democracy?

Color must never determine fate, as ultimately we ALL,
belong to one, great, big race.

A seat does actually matter, as it provides a place, connecting us all to our earthly base.

Elle Smith, to honor Rosa Parks